DETAILED ACTION

Pending claims 5, 8, 13 and 14 are examined below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 5, 8, 13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 4,329,827 to Thorn.

Regarding claim 5, Thorn discloses a hollow panel (Figure 5) comprising first hollow portions with a first width and second hollow portions arranged in the same plane and with a second width different than the first width, wherein the partition walls (4) are made of wood (column 2, last line). In addition, Thorn discloses a pair of flat, parallel, outer side portions (fig. 5: see pair of flat sheets 1) between the hollow portions and made as the same material (as inner walls 4 of fig. 5).

Regarding claims 8, 13 and 14, discloses a hollow panel (Figure 5) comprising first hollow portions (fig. 5: cavity adjacent the number 2) with a first width and second hollow portions (cavity between numbers 4 in fig. 5) arranged in the same plane and with a second width different than the first width, wherein the partition walls (4) are made of wood (column 2, last line). In addition, Thorn discloses a rod like member (fig. 5: 5) disposed at a part of the first and second hollow portions with a section shape that corresponds to the shape of the part, the member (5) being located outside (not inserted into) of the hollow portion (the hollow portion being the area between members 5 and between where the numbers 4 point). Thorn also discloses a pair of flat outer sides (fig. 5: 1) which are substantially parallel to each other.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 3/16/07 are moot under new grounds of rejections necessitated by the applicant.
